

Dear Heather,

As we start 2024, it is a great time to reflect on the many accomplishments of the Association over this past membership year. As a member, you play a crucial role in advancing AALL's mission to advocate for access to legal information and support the legal information profession. Here are some highlights of our achievements:

: We continue to innovate and diversify our programming to meet your evolving needs and interests. In 2023, we offered a wide range of educational programs, including recordings from (), (), and () to support you in your professional growth.

: drew , with on emerging trends, innovative strategies, and best practices in the profession. The Conference included , the majority being AALL members. The (CONNEL) who made long-term professional connections.

t: AALL is dedicated to advocating for your interests and advancing the profession. Through strategic partnerships with ALM for to partnering with four additional library associations to create a Library Job Board Network on the , we made significant strides. Additionally, we promoted our members as thought leaders in legal information through AA~~AA~~ with Slaw, further elevating awareness of the profession. We also advocated for you and the profession by on the to various standards impacting law libraries and their staff, including those outlined in Chapter 6 of the Library and Information Resources Standards as well as Standards 304 , i ad.....! s asb

r

June Hsiao Liebert
AALL President

[[]]

